[AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE]

TO

Amend the Law relating to the Pay and Pensions of the ^{A.D. 1916.}
Royal Irish Constabulary and Dublin Metropolitan Police.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1.—(1) The pay of district inspectors of the Royal Irish Constabulary shall be according to the rates specified in Part I. of the First Schedule to this Act instead of the rates specified in Part I. of the First Schedule to the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1914 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 10 1914").

(2) The pay of constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary shall be according to the rates specified in Part II. of the First Schedule to this Act instead of the rates specified in Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1914.

15 (3) The pay of constables of the Dublin Metropolitan Police shall be according to the rates specified in the Second Schedule to this Act instead of the rates specified in the Second Schedule to the Act of 1914.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act any enactment 20 with respect to the pay of district inspectors or constables shall apply to pay at the rates authorised by this Act in like manner as it applies to pay at the rates actually in force at the passing of this Act.

(5) In this Act the expression "constable" has the same 25 meaning as in the Act of 1914.

(6) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section one of the Act of 1914 and the First and Second Schedules to that Act are hereby repealed.

c. 60.

2.—(1) Section three of the Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1908, which authorises an increase in the amount of pension that may be granted to the widow of a constable of the Royal Irish Constabulary in certain circumstances shall apply in the case of widows of constables of the Dublin Metropolitan Police 5 in like manner as it applies in the case of widows of constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary.

(2) In calculating the amount of the pension allowance or gratuity that may be granted to a superintendent or inspector of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, or to the widow or children 10 of such superintendent or inspector, any lodging allowance payable to the superintendent or inspector shall be treated as part of his annual pay.

5 & 6 Geo. 5. (3) In calculating the amount of the weekly allowance that 15 may be granted under section one of the Irish Police (Naval and Military Service) Act, 1915, in respect of a married member c. 32. of the Royal Irish Constabulary or Dublin Metropolitan Police who, being a reservist, has been called out, or, not being a reservist, has joined His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces for the purposes of the present war, the weekly amount which that member was 20 receiving from police funds at the time of his being so called out or joining shall, as from the commencement of this Act, be computed as if the rates of pay authorised by this Act had been in force at that time, and as if any war bonus granted to the police force had then been payable, and the amount of any 25 such weekly allowance may be altered so as to give effect to this provision.

c. 14.

(4) Paragraph (c) of Article 14 of the Second Schedule to the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1883, which provides for the calculation of a pension, allowance or gratuity in certain 30 cases on the basis of the average annual amount of pay received by a constable in the course of the three years next before the date of his death or retirement, or the injury or cause occasioning his death or retirement, instead of on the basis of his actual annual pay at that date, shall cease to have effect except where 35 a constable has been promoted to a higher rank within such three years, or where a constable (not being incapacitated by infirmity of body or mind) retires before the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and nineteen.

(5) In the application of subsection (2) of section three of 40 the Act of 1914 to any pension, allowance or gratuity granted after the commencement of this Act, any reference to any Schedule to the Act of 1914 shall be construed as a reference to the corresponding Schedule to this Act, and any reference to the commencement of that Act shall be construed as a reference to the commencement of this Act, but nothing in that subsection as so applied shall affect the operation of section two of the 5 & 6 Geo. 5, 5 Police (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1915. A.D. 1916.

n. 41.

3. The statutes mentioned in the Third Schedule to this Act shall be repealed to the extent mentioned in the said schedule.

4. This Act may be cited as the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1916, and shall come into operation on the expiration of one week from the day on which it passes, but the rates of pay authorised by this Act shall be deemed to have been in force as from the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and sixteen.
